FAMILY BELIEVES SAMUEL BATES IS VICTIM OF CRIME

Ship Caulker Found Dead
With Bullet Hole in His Head.

Body Brought Here From St.
Louis Today.

SURVIVED BY TWO CHILDREN.

The body of Samuel Bates, a ship caulker, formerly of Paducah, who is supposed to have committed suicide in St. Louis Monday at his boarding house on Volcano street, arrived here this morning at 7:30 o'clock and was taken to the home of his mother, Mrs. Ida Steinhilber, 212 Monroe street. The funeral will be conducted at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, the Rev. B. B. Landis, pastor of the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church, officiating. Burial will be in Oak Grove cemetery.

Bates was 40 years old and was born here. He learned the ship caulker's trade at the marine ways, First and Washington streets, and several years ago went to Memphis, where he worked up until four months ago. Then work became dull, he went to St. Louis, where he was found dead Monday with a bullet hole in the top of his head. Relatives here were notified immediately and the body was embalmed. Three of Bates' fingers on the right hand are cut off and his sister, Mrs. J. C. Pruitt, expressed a belief today that he met with foul play. She said the family would make an investigation into the death later on. Bates boarded on Volcano street and took his meals across from the rooming house. For some time he had in poor health with stomach trouble, but it is not thought he took his life. No note was left by Bates and this strengthens the supposition that he was murdered. The ball entered directly over the temple and it would be almost impossible for him to have shot himself with his arm in such a position. Bates was well known here among ship caulkers.

He is survived by two children: Samuel, 8 years old, and Roy, 6 years old. Besides his mother he leaves one sister, Mrs. J. C. Pruitt, of 1029 South Third street, Paducah.

Returned By Grate.

While dressing before a fire in an open grate early this morning the clothes of Maud McClure, colored, 1215 Jones street, caught fire. She saw the blaze and was able to jerk off the clothes before the flames could burn her dangerously. She was burned on the right side of the body and face, and probably will be disfigured permanently. Dr. Van J. Davis dressed the injuries.

FERRY LANDING SECURED ON LIVINGSTON POINT

A compromise, it is said, has been effected between the Paducah & Illinois Ferry company and C. D. Davis of Livingston county, for the ferry franchise to Livingston point to Paducah. It is said the ferry company has bought one acre of the Davis land to be used as a ferry landing and a road is being constructed now. Road commissioners will probably pay Mr. Davis $250 for the ground to be used as a public road. As soon as the new ferryboat is completed as the Helena, Ark., shipyards this trade will be begun. The boat will make two trips daily between here and the Panhandle, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. Trips will also be made to Brookport and Owen's landing, as the new boat will be fast and commodious.

Pittsburgh, March 11.—Today the $11 hog arrived here when prime heavies were quoted at $11 to $11.05. Local live stock men say they are twice as expensive as during the Civil war.

Oscar Hank, representing the American Snuff company, purchased the Carlsberg county pool of the Farmers' Union, consisting of 100,000 pounds of dark tobacco at 7 1/2 to 8 cents. He recently purchased the McCracken pool of 90,000 pounds. Tobacco deliveries are being rushed and the price continues high.

House Kills Uniform Accounting Bill and Passes Measure Making Columbus Day in October Holiday

Senate Appropriates Another Large Sum to be Expended on State's Prisons--Politics in State Fair Board.

Frankfort, Ky., March 11. (Special.)—The senate killed the Newcomb telephone bill, putting telephones under the state railroad commission and regulating the charges, by refusing to call it out of the committee. The senate passed a bill appropriating $180,000 for hospitals, extensions, etc., at the state prisons, the money to be expended when it is in the treasury.

The house killed the Eaton bill, providing for a uniform system of accounting in various state and county offices.

The house committee on agriculture is stirred up over the report of a sub-committee, which has found politics in the state fair board and may refuse to report to the house.

Columbus Day.
The house passed the senate bill, making Columbus Day a legal holiday.

The senate passed the house bill, allowing the pooling of crops before they are planted.

Statistics Distributed.
The first thing the senate did was to put through a concurrent resolution by Senator Eaton, appropriating to the members of the general assembly a copy of the Kentucky statutes and code of practice, for use during their term of office, at $17 per, or an expense of $2,346 to the taxpayers. The resolution provides that they are to be returned, but a senator's term is four years and that of a representative two years, so that the few copies that will find their way back to the state library will be obsolete.

By vote of 20 to 9 the senate added another man to the "extra help" and paid him $213. Senator Tichenor discovered that Leslie Kendrick had volunteered during the session to assist the cloakroom keeper of the body, and introduced a resolution to give him $3 per day for having done so.

Senator Gus Brown rose to a question of personal privilege and asked the senate if it was parliamentary or right to cut off debate without hearing opponents of a measure. He said it had become painfully apparent to him that the senators in charge of legislation were, in every instance, cutting off debate when advocates of bills are through talking.

"It isn't right or proper, but it is parliamentary, I think," responded Governor Cox.

Senate bill 255, to pay Joseph Morris, of Lagrange, $100 for services performed at the Jamestown Exposition for the state agricultural department, was considered and rejected 20 votes to 6 against.

The rules committee next called senate bill 431, making second conviction of carrying a pistol a felony. The bill passed, 17 to 11.

Senate bill 260, creating a state board of veterinary examiners, was called up and defeated, 16 to 9.

Senator bill 254, to regulate hucksters and provide for an inspector of same, was next called.

Senator Gna Brown opposed the bill.

Senator Mathers offered an amendment to put the entire expense of inspection on the hucksters. Senator Graham offered an amendment confining operation to First and Second class cities. The amendments were adopted and the bill favored by a vote of 15 to 13, which, however, lost the measure.

Senate bill 66, to establish a medi-

BARBERS WON'T OPEN.
Most of the barbers in the city do not want to open the shops on Sunday in spite of the fact that the appellate court has held the law, requiring all shops to remain closed on the Sabbath, unconstitutional. The Paducah barbers are opposed to Sunday work, declaring that their hours are long enough without remaining open a few hours Sunday morning in order that a few forgetful customers may get a shave or haircut.

cal college at Lexington in connection with the State University, was called up. The senate heard President Patterson on the bill.

CAPT. R. G. PELL

CONFEDERATE VETERAN DIES OF RHEUMATISM.

Was Suddenly Stricken Last Evening
When Disease Affected His Heart.

That he came to his death as a result of rheumatism of the heart was the verdict returned this morning by Acting Coroner C. W. Emery's jury in its investigation into the sudden death of R. G. Pell, who died at 6 o'clock yesterday evening at his room over the Hamburg furniture store at Fifth and Jefferson streets.

Captain Pell was a Confederate veteran and was 69 years old. For many years he engaged in the painting business in Paducah and was well known here. He was born in Paducah and at the outbreak of the Civil war he joined the ranks of the Third Kentucky mounted infantry under General Forrest. He served throughout the war and then returned to this city and settled. Mr. Pell was a good conversationalist and interested many in his tales of the war.

The last few days Mr. Pell complained of pains in his breast, but no concern was felt. He was apparently well at 5 o'clock yesterday evening, but died suddenly one hour later. He is survived by one daughter, Miss Hazel Pell, and one son, Boyd Pell, of this city; two sisters, Mrs. Christie Moss, of Shreveport, La. One brother, Peter Pell, of Joliet, Ill., also survives.

The body of Captain Pell was removed this afternoon to the undertaking establishment of Nance & Rogers and will be held awaiting the arrival of Mr. Peter Pell from Joliet, Ill., who is expected tomorrow afternoon. The funeral will be held some time Sunday, but no definite arrangements will be made until his brother comes.

Captain of Dartmouth Track Team and Scholastic High Jumper.

Will Compete With All Comers in Big Event.

EXPECTED TO HOLD RECORD.

Recognition as the star jumper at Dartmouth college, Hanover, N. H., is the proud honor held by E. Russell Palmer, a Paducah boy, who has proven one of the best in athletic events at that college. Accompanied by the Dartmouth track team Mr. Palmer, who is the captain, left Hanover today for New York city to contest in the track meet of the New York Athletic association to be held at Madison Square Garden Tuesday, March 15.

Mr. Palmer, who is just 21 years old, is the son of Mr. Earl Palmer, of the firm of Ferguson & Palmer, lumber manufacturers, and is to be graduated from Dartmouth this year. Mr. Palmer holds the American scholastic and New England records for the running high jump, which is 6 feet, 5 1/2 inches.

Besides being at the head of his class in his studies, Mr. Palmer is foremost in athletics and is a perfect type of an athlete. He will contest for the running high jump record and his friends believe he will carry off the honors of the day next Tuesday. The Evening Sun received a dispatch from Meredith, N. H., today announcing Mr. Palmer's departure for New York with his team, which is one of the best teams in the country.

The meet at New York will be participated in by both professionals and amateurs and is to be a big event.

Equalization Board at Work.

Frankfort, Ky., March 11.—Work has been started by the board of equalization and the preliminary assessments are being made now.

MR. MARTIN GOES ON ROAD FOR PADUCAH CONCERN.

On his initial trip, Mr. E. A. Martin left today for Washington, D. C., and the east as a representative of Friedman-Keller & company. FALL FAIR DIRECTORS AT COMMERCIAL CLUB

Only a brief meeting of the Commercial club was held last night at the Palmer House. Ben Welle, representing the fair association, was present. He told of the plans of the association to hold a good fair in Paducah next fall, and asked the cooperation of the club. A committee will be appointed to act with a committee from the Retail Merchants' association relative to raising a fund for the fair. Several letters from factory owners, seeking a desirable location, were read, and the advantages of Paducah will be placed before them.

GOTT WINS HIS CASE IN APPELLATE COURT

Frankfort, Ky., March 11. (Special.)—The decision for the defendant in the McCracken circuit court in the suit of the Diamond Distilleries company, of Cincinnati, against S. B. Gott was affirmed today by the appellate court. The entire court sat, but Justice T. J. Nunn delivered a separate opinion. The distilleries company sued Gott for $4,800 alleged due on some notes executed to Thompson-Wilson company. Mr. Gott's defense was that he had paid the note.

CULBERTSON, OF TEXAS, TIPPED FOR PRESIDENT

San Antonio, Tex., March 11.—Senator Culbertson, of Texas, is the choice of the Democratic powers that be to make the race for the presidential candidacy in 1912, according to local Democrats today. Following a conference here called by National Committeeman Roger Sullivan, of Illinois, and National Chairman Mack, it is said today that the Democratic presidential prospects were looked over and Sullivan was convinced that Culbertson is the strongest man available.

Favorable Report Made By Senate Committee on John D. Rockefeller Foundation Fund's Enabling Act

Arizona and New Mexico
Statehood Bill is Favorably
Acted on by Senate Committee.

Washington, March 11.—A favorable report on the bill to charter the "Rockefeller foundation" was decided upon today by the senate committee on the districts of Columbia.

Washington, March 11.—Favorable report on the senate bill for the admission of Arizona and New Mexico to statehood was voted by the senate committee on territories today.

Memorial Road Through the Gap.

Washington, March 11.—Representative D. C. Edwards is taking a deep interest in furthering his project for the construction of a Boone Memorial Road from Cumberland Gap to connect with the Boonesboro pike at Madison. He is receiving many letters from Kentucky which indicate that he has touched the hearts of the mountain people with this project. Mr. Edwards is making an exhaustive collection of data showing exactly what the government has done in the past in aid of highway projects. The most notable work of this kind was the construction many years ago of the National road through Cumberland, Maryland.

Yesterday Mr. Edwards tried to secure legislation in the house for an appropriation for a road to connect the National cemetery in Pulaski county, with Somerset, eight miles away. The opposition was too strong to be overcome, however.

Olle M. James introduced to President Taft R. L. Barnett, secretary of the Kentucky branch of the National Farmers' union. The visit was purely social.

Public Lands Restored to Entry.

Washington, March 11.—A large part of the lands withdrawn by former Secretary of the Interior Garfield along the Grand river, in Colorado and Utah, on the ground that they contained power possibilities, will be restored to entry by Secretary Ballinger, an examination having shown that only 12,392 acres are serviceable for that purpose.

Morgan Rumor Denied

New York, March 11.—The report that J. P. Morgan had dropped dead in Florence, Italy, was circulated on stock exchange this noon and for a time caused a flurry. At the office of J. P. Morgan & company, it was stated that the rumor was unqualifiedly false, that they have been in communication with him and his health is excellent. Just where it originated, could not be learned.

KILLING OF WOOD BASIS OF ACTION

ADMINISTRATOR WANTS DAMAGES FROM ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD CO.

The jury returned a verdict for $2,500 in the Wood damage suit.

The suit of J. H. Massie, administrator, against the Illinois Central railroad, has been one of the hardest fought cases up for trial at this term of court. Massie filed suit against the railroad for damages for the death of Bennett Wood, a prominent citizen of the western part of the county, who was killed last summer near Woodville.

The evidence of the plaintiff was that the crossing was unusually dangerous, and that the trainmen in charge of the train failed to give the proper signals, when approaching the crossing. Without this warning, it is alleged Mr. Wood started across the tracks unaware of the approaching train, and was killed. The defense introduced evidence that the proper blazes were given from the whistle of the locomotive as a warning that the freight train was approaching. Several citizens swore they heard the whistles, while the only eye witness to the accident that was introduced, swore that the whistle was sounded.

A large number of witnesses were introduced, and it was late yesterday afternoon when the evidence was completed. Practically the entire morning was devoted to the arguments and the jury received the case at noon. Attorneys John K. Hendrick, Hal S. Corbett and Thomas C. Crice represented the plaintiff. The railroad was represented by Hon. Charles K. Wheeler, D. H. Hughes and W. A. Berry.

RECLAMATION MAN FOLLOWS FORMER SEC'Y GARFIELD

Tells About Ballinger's Re-Listing Lands Withdrawn
by Garfield.

Latter Talks at Length About Conservation.

THE INTERIOR DEPARTMENT.

Washington, March 11.—Arthur P. Davis, chief engineer of the reclamation service, was on the stand today at the Ballinger-Pinchot inquiry. He testified concerning restorations and re-withdrawals made by Ballinger of water-power sites, formerly reserved by Garfield.

"My Dear Jim" and "My Dear Dick" were the salutations used respectively by Mr. Garfield and Mr. Ballinger in addressing each other in two letters exchanged after Mr. Ballinger left the land office in April, 1908, and while the coal hills were still pending. Mr. Ballinger's letter concluded with the statement that before leaving Washington he had talked with President Roosevelt about the whole matter, and that the president had commended his action.

Willing to Condone Fraud.
Replying, Secretary Garfield urged Mr. Ballinger not to be disturbed about his position on the coal bills; that he had always understood it and had told newspaper men that there never had been any misunderstanding.

Mr. Garfield said he had never read Mr. Ballinger's testimony before the congressional committee, however, until he had gone out of office.

Senator Nelson questioned the witness closely as to a statement that Ballinger had been in error in stating that Mr. Garfield's position as to the Alaska coal bills. Mr. Garfield said his recommendations cited by Mr. Ballinger applied to a general coal bill and not the Alaska measure.

Replying to a question by Senator Nelson, Mr. Garfield said: "The effect of the section which I recommended was that if the entire coal bill passed and the government adopted a new policy as to coal deposits, there should be a validation of all entries at a new classified price. I was willing that claims should be consolidated and was willing to condone prior fraud."

An "Add Park."
Mr. Garfield said the difference in the old price of $10 an acre and a classified price might prove to be a difference between $25,000 and $500,000. Attorney Peiper read from Secretary Ballinger's reply to the president concerning the charges.

Wanted to See Train Wrecked.

Bowling Green, Ky., March 11.—Clint and Jud Hayes, negro boys 15 years old, have been arrested by L. & N. officers at Smith's Grove charged with attempting to wreck a train. They have confessed the attempt, saying they wanted to see a train wrecked and some people killed. They had placed large rocks and other obstacles on the track and they were struck by a northbound freight. They failed to wreck the train though the track was damaged.

TRICK PLAYED MEMORY OF NATHAN SKAGGS.

Louisville, Ky., March 11.—Most unusual was the trick which rumor played the memory of the late Nathan Skaggs, for many years county judge of Allen county, Kentucky. Yesterday in his obituary printed here appeared this sentence: "He was for many years a noted guide at Mammoth Cave." The following correction was printed here: "As a matter of fact, Judge Skaggs lived for 75 years within 300 or 400 miles of Mammoth Cave and never saw the famous wonder."

JAMES PATTEN HOOTED ON MANCHESTER CHANGE

Manchester, Eng., March 11.—James Patten, the Chicago wheat and cotton manipulator, was hooted out of the Manchester cotton exchange this afternoon, according to the Evening Chronicle. The Chronicle says that after Patten left the exchange a crowd followed him along the street, finally forcing him to take refuge in an office building. The anger of the crowd, according to the Chronicle, resulted from a belief that Patten had come here to repeat his Chicago performance of alleged market "rigging."

GERMS IN HER SYSTEM

Every Woman Should Read This Advice and the Generous Offer That Goes With It.

The number of diseases peculiar to women is such that we believe this space would hardly contain a mere mention of their names, and it is a fact that most of these diseases are of a catarrhal nature. A woman can not be well if there is a trace of catarrh in her system.

Some women think there is no help for them. We positively declare this to be a mistaken idea. We are aware of this that we offer to supply medicine absolutely free of all cost in every instance where it fails to give satisfaction, or does not substantiate our claims. With this understanding, no woman should hesitate to put our claims to a test.

There is only one way to overcome catarrh. That way is through the blood. You may use all the snuffs, douches or like remedies for years without getting more than temporary relief at best. Catarrh in general is a diseased condition of the system that shows locally most frequently in discharges from mucous membranes. Local treatment should be assisted by internal treatment for the general diseased condition if a complete cure is to be reached. That internal treatment should be scientifically devised and faithfully administered.

Rexall Mucro-Tone is scientifically prepared from the prescription of an eminent physician who for thirty years made catarrh his specialty. This remedy is admirably adapted to the treatment of the catarrhal ailments of women. It purifies and enriches the blood, tends to stop mucous discharges, aids in removing impurities from the system, cools, heals and strengthens the mucous tissues and brings about a feeling of health and strength.

We want you to try Rexall Mucro-Tone on our guarantee. If you are not benefited, or for any reason not satisfied, simply tell us and we will hand back your money. Rexall Mucro-Tone comes in two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Paducah only at our store.—The Rexall Store, W. B. McPherson, 425 Broadway.

STANDARD FILES ANOTHER BRIEF

ANOTHER GROUP OF LAWYERS COME FORWARD.

Arguments On Monday—Paper Filed Yesterday Defends Profits Made by the Standard.

GOES INTO "FACTS" IN DETAIL.

Washington, March 11.—Although the brief "on the part of the appellants" was already on file in the supreme court, a second group of lawyers of the Standard Oil company today presented to the court an independent defense of that organization.

Today's defenders are John G. Johnson, of Philadelphia, John G. Millburn, and Frank L. Crawford, of New York.

The first defense was prepared by Pittsburgh counsel. On Monday the court will hear oral arguments on the decree of the circuit court, dissolving the Standard Oil company, of New Jersey.

The eastern counsel went more fully into the "facts" in the controversy than the Pittsburgh attorneys. Particular stress is laid on the assertion that the record shows no unreasonable advance in the average prices of Standard oil.

"What the government's position amounts to," they say, "is that the actual prices for refined oil should have stood still, while all other prices were rising, including the prices of all commodities used in the manufacture of oil and chiefly, the price of labor."

But suppose it were otherwise; there is no principle of law or of political economy which requires a manufacturer to give away profit which he can make by economies in manufacture.

The government's method of estimating the profits the Standard Oil company had been making is denounced in the brief as "unsound in law" and as "contrary to business principles and facts of human experience."

"Considering only the rate of profit, which for seven years, from 1900 to 1906, averaged less than 25 per cent on the total net capital invested year by year in the business, that rate of profit is a reasonable one for a great manufacturing business, including the elements of risk, which characterize the oil industry, especially where, as here, a great proportion of the profits are derived from the business with foreign countries outside of the protection of American laws and in competition with manufactures and merchants of the world."

"It is believed that few, if any, large manufacturing enterprises in this country, at least the prosperous years, make less than 25 per cent profits per annum when such profits are reckoned upon the actual cash value of net tangible assets."

"The success of the Standard Oil company's business, broadly considered, is due to extraordinary foresight, energy, and boldness and to the policy of investment on an immense scale displayed and carried out in every branch of the petroleum industry. This industry may be analyzed under four great heads."

"Insuring an instant and adequate supply of crude oil; getting crude oil to the refiners; maintaining and employing the latest and most economical refining method; and developing and extending the markets, domestic and foreign, by improved marketing methods."

The charge that the Standard Oil company, through the control of pipe lines, have monopolized the purchase and transportation of crude oil, is declared to be "entirely unsupported by record."

WANTED ALL OF SAM'S PAY.

Bride of Eight Days Hands Husband Into Police Court.

New York, March 11.—"When I married Sam," said Mrs. Fannie Bookbinder in police court, "he promised to provide for me, and last night his pay envelope was 30 cents short." Mrs. Bookbinder is a bride of eight days. Although she has a personal bank account of $1,000 which she refused to share with Sam, she hauled him into court on representations that he had treated her cruelly.

"Sam makes $20 a week," she continued, "and I want every cent of it. If he needs anything I'll get it for him. I know what's due a wife, and that's why I brought him here."

"Suppose your husband wants a clear?" suggested the magistrate.

"I'll buy it for him," replied Mrs. Bookbinder firmly.

The magistrate laughed aloud. "You go home and make up your mind," he said, "to do as your husband tells you, and take what he gives you. And don't come before me again with such ridiculous charges. The case is dismissed."

The pair left the court arm in arm.

We have fitted up this department in a manner that is sure to make shopping here a real pleasure for you.

The department is in charge of Messrs. Johnson and Mills, whose several years of experience in this business has made them expert "Fitters of Feet."

It is perhaps unnecessary for us to add that the shoes carried in this department will conform to the high standard of quality long ago adopted by this store, in fact, we firmly intend to give the ladies of Paducah better shoe satisfaction than they have been in the habit of getting.

In response to our advertisement asking for suggestions for the names for three especially fine brands of ladies' shoes manufactured for our trade, many answers were received, and while it was very hard to make a final choice, the following were decided upon as most appropriate: "Stratford" for our $5.00 shoe, "DeLuxe" for our $4.00 shoe, "Paragon" for our $3.50 shoe.

On opening day, it will be our endeavor to show all the goods we can, without effort to sell, for we want you all to come, whether you are in need of shoes or not.

Personally appeared before me this 1st day of March, 1910, R. D. MacMillen, Business Manager of The Sun, who affirms that the foregoing is a true and correct statement of its circulation for the month of February, to the best of his knowledge and belief.

Daily Thought.

"Never beset to give a man the benefit of the doubt. Remember to err on the human side."

Public sentiment in Kentucky apparently has not crystallized about any one name for governor; but sentiment appears to be coagulating about some.

A Cincinnati preacher, who is praying for the redemption of George B. Cox, says his life's work will be completed, when he converts the "boss". We should say it will be, and then some!

"According to reports in a few Western Kentucky papers there is a veritable hege of farmers from that section into Missouri, where they may raise tobacco undisturbed. When the tobacco trust gets hold of them, however, they will be quick to cry, 'Come over into Macedonia and help us,'" says the Bowling Green Messenger.

If they do, Rd., we presume you will pick up your faithful mask, take your trusty alibi down from the wall, and answer the cry.

We certainly have no cause for fear that the bill, permitting second class cities to issue ten-year special assessment bonds will fail of passage at this session of the legislature. We have two astute members of the general assembly from this county; every city in the second class favors the measure and there is no opposition to it. True the bill was introduced weeks ago, the house has been in the hands of the rules committee since Saturday and the session adjourns Tuesday; but surely our senator and representative have influence enough to get this innocent and meritorious measure out of the committee and before the senate in the next two days.

ROCKEFELLER AND HIS TIMES.

Every age has its standard of morality. That standard holds until the inevitable consequences of whatever viciousness is contained in it destroys the social equilibrium. Then follows a change, accompanied by more or less violence, varying from an alteration of political policies to a revolution. The great trusts are products of our economic system; the Rockefeller fortune was built up in accordance with the highest standard of business existing in this country and the world, and if it was wrongfully acquired, then must we admit that whatever wealth most people possess was also wrongfully acquired; for John D. Rockefeller merely applied to the development of the Standard Oil trust the principles that govern most businesses today. He took advantage of his opportunities; he crushed competition by the same methods, with which his competitors would have crushed him, if they were of his order of genius and possessed his judgment of men; he forced men into combination, he wheedled them into combination, he bribed them into combination; he drew to himself the ablest financiers and business men; he encouraged the inventive genius of his employees; he stopped waste and made by-products profitable; he created markets, where there were none; he cut down expenses; he also cut down the price of oil and raised the quality, and, although he was ruthless with competitors, as most business men are ruthless with competitors, he played fair with his customers.

We do not approve of the oil trust or the methods by which the Rockefeller fortune was built up, any more than does the Rev. Washington Gladden, for instance, who condemns the "Rockefeller foundation". But how can we condemn old John D. without condemning ourselves? He is only a conspicuous example, successful beyond the capabilities of most men, but no more reprehensible. If it is morally wrong for a man to amass an immense fortune according to the business standards of the last fifty years, isn't it just as immoral to make a living that way? Or does the gravity of the offense increase with the emoluments? We will go further and say that Rockefeller's business standard was higher than that of most of his contemporaries; for he did not attempt to fleece the public; there has been no question of the quality of his products, or the also of his measures. It is only the methods of the business, which we call into question, and in doing so we question the standards of the age.

Rockefeller has lived in its own time, according to its standards. Yet, he has not failed to see that, as it stands, the result of his commercial achievement has multiplied his responsibility to his fellowmen. His son is to live his life in a new age, and the Rockefeller pile is to play its part in the new age. It need not carry into new and more beneficent enterprises any more of the contamination of the old order, than does the small ebarity of the average man, earned in the same way.

Let us recall what was wrong with the system under which the great trusts were developed, a system of divided political responsibility, a system that placed property above men in the scale of importance, and a neglect of man's obligation to his fellowman. Let the reform be worked out in our own lives, not spent in futile condemnation of those, who succeeded better than we at the game of every man for himself. We are glad to see the same brains and thrift that won out in the selfish struggle joining with enthusiasm in the "pull altogether". We cannot suspect Rockefeller's reformation, without suspecting our own. He was no worse than any of us, and much better than most of us.

Some Stories Around the Town.

The Mayfield Messenger says: "A prominent clerk in a Broadway clothing store, in Paducah, was not feeling well last Sunday and did not feel like eating breakfast. Missing the meat at the boarding house, he telephoned the street from his rooming house, asking her if she would cook him a small breakfast if he would bring one up there. Sure she consented. He bought the steak, paying 85 cents for it. She cooked it, apparently to suit his taste, as when he wiped his mouth and got up from the table, there was nothing left but the plate, knife and fork. Still this man is always complaining of hard times and not feeling well. He has a brother in steak enter. That's all."

STATE PRESS.

A Senator Who Has Made Good.

We do not know Senator Claude Thomas, of the county of Bourbon, but we have carefully noted his record in the state senate and we want to say for him while we have differed from some of his positions and a few of his votes, he has made good. He has won the respect and admiration of the members of the senate who have differed most conspicuously as one of the few senators who is more popular with the people now than when the senate convened. We salute you, Senator Thomas. Your integrity, your courage and your ability mark you as a public servant after our own heart.—Elizabethtown News.

The People Yet Have a Say.

A handful of friends of Hon. Ben Johnson, of Bardonia, met at a hotel in Louisville last week and not only nominated him for re-election to congress from the Fourth district, but nominated him as the Democratic candidate for governor. Insatiable archers, will not one suffice?—The Georgetown Times.

What the People Expected.

An extra session of the legislature is something horrible to contemplate, but if it can find some means by which to raise the ready cash to meet the state's obligations and will pass the county unit bill it will have done what was expected by the people when it met in regular session.—Danville Advocate.

Lawrence for Wilson.

George S. Wilson, speaker of the Kentucky house of representatives, may be the next governor of Kentucky. His name has been mentioned for some weeks, but a strong bond was launched last week when many of his colleagues in the house called upon him in a body and pledged him their support. Mr. Wilson has made one of the most popular presiding officers the house ever had; besides he is able and honest, courageous and true, a private life without a blemish and a public record that no one can assail. Throughout the state the suggestion has proven to be a most popular one, and if he does go into the fight, it is safe to say that he will be nominated.—Cadiz Record.

A WATCH

ALLEGED TO HAVE BEEN STOLEN AND SOLD.

Oscar Baker Held on Two Charges By Police Judge Cross Today.

Facing two serious charges, Oscar Baker, a young white man, who was arrested last night at 9 o'clock by Police Sergeant Lige Cross, was held over to the circuit court grand jury this morning in the city court, his bond in each case being fixed at $300. He went to jail in default of bail.

Baker is accused of forcibly taking a watch valued at over $20 from Jim Bracken sometime yesterday, and is alleged to have sold it to Ed Griffin, a bartender, for $1. In one warrant Baker is charged with robbery and in the other of obtaining money by false pretenses.

Nora White, a negro, was arrested at 7 o'clock last night by Patrolman Emile Goureaux on a charge of grand larceny. Fannie Dunning alleges that the White woman stole the following articles from her: One coat suit, $16.50; one pair shoes, $3.50; three shirt waists, $2.50; one black dress skirt, $5.50, and three petticoats valued at $2.50. The trial was set for next Saturday morning in order that the necessary witnesses may be summoned.

The charge of petit larceny against H. C. Jones, charged with stealing half tobacco from the Hodge steamery, was changed to breach of ordinance and he was fined $10.

Mayfield Letter

Mayfield, Ky., March 11. (Special)—Mayfield camp No. 115, Woodmen of the World, held a big meeting here Thursday night. Col. J. H. Brewer, state manager of the W. O. W., and Atkins Cole, district manager, were present. There were visitors from all the surrounding camps and cities here to attend the big occasion. Refreshments were served and all present report a most enjoyable time. Next Thursday there will be about 20 more candidates. Quite an honor was conferred on Brooks Webb when he was nominated for the "High Office."

Much enthusiasm was raised in the last meeting and all are looking forward to the next meeting with lots of zeal.

A Most Enjoyable "At Home."

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Terry Smith was the charming hostess of an "at home" at her residence on North Fifth street. Miss Jeanette Sherrill welcomed the guests, while the other members in the house party who so gracefully assisted Mrs. Smith in making this a delightful affair were Mesdames R. E. Lochridge, James Sherrill, Mack Glasgow, W. S. Lochridge, Lucian Smith, Gus Thomas, Ralph Stanfield and Miss Mabel Norman. The house, always well-appointed, looked beautiful in its festive attire. A two-course luncheon was served to about a hundred guests.

Dr. P. W. McKeel Laid to Rest.

The funeral services of Dr. P. W. McKeel were held at the residence on North Seventh street this morning at 10:30 o'clock, with the Rev. Mr. Adams, of the Methodist church, officiating. The flowers and floral designs were most beautiful. A special train carried the body and the many friends of Dr. McKeel to Win-go.

Bob Foster left last night for Des Moines, Iowa, where he will join an opera company.

Miss Lizzie Osborne left last night for Paducah, where she will visit for several days.

Mr. A. J. Elder, special agent for the Home Fire Insurance company, was in the city last night.

THE LEGISLATURE

President Patterson made a strong appeal for the bill. He explained that two years were to be taught at Lexington and two years at Louisville.

Sensor Combs, out of deference to certain senators, who oppose a continuous appropriation, offered an amendment limiting the appropriation to two years.

Sensor Burnam opposed the appropriation. He paid a tribute to President Patterson's great work, but declared against a divided school at Lexington and Louisville. He urged that Kentucky isn't financially able to start a medical school at a $50,000 starter, and coming back two years from now and asking for $50,000.

Sensor Combs answered Senator Burnam, showing that many states have the divided medical school system.

Sensor Linn opposed the bill, declaring that it had its inception in the minds of certain physicians and surgeons of the city of Louisville, members of faculties of medical schools, who lost their job in the reorganization and consolidation of these schools. He said it was a job to unload on the state and to "get even."

The senate adopted an amendment reducing the appropriation from $150,000 to $25,000. The bill received 18 votes to 14 against, and failed, not receiving a constitutional vote of 20.

In the House.

Representative George W. Reid's bill, providing for the punishment of fruit tree vendors, who misrepresent their goods, was the first bill acted upon in the house of representatives, and it passed—71 to 0.

House bill 294 (Johnson) changing the time of holding courts in the thirty-third judicial district, passed—66 to 0.

House bill 391 (Russell), providing for the payment by the county treasurer of road work expenses, passed—64 to 0.

Now that the senate has passed the $500,000 bond bill, the interest-bearing warrant bill, and the appropriation of revenues measure of Senator Burnam, it is up to the house to enact some legislation that will satisfy the governor. Whether this will be done at this session is a question.

House bill 65 (Buford), authorizing fiscal courts to complete sets of Kentucky reports, met with some objection. It passed by 48 to 4.

House bill 140 (Hines), amending the laws to third class cities, with reference to public schools, passed by 60 to 0.

House bill 522 (Russell), to provide fire drills in public schools and instruction as to same, passed by 54 to 7.

House bill 460, to provide for the teaching of the elements of agriculture in the common schools, at the end of four years from the passage of the bill, was called up. Mr. Carrier spoke several times in support of the bill, stating that formerly he had been opposed to it, but that he had become a convert to it. Several members opposed the bill, among them Col. Chinn, who moved to table the entire matter.

Col. Jack Chinn said that he had been told that the department of agriculture was prepared to teach seven ways of grafting trees; he said that he thought several cities were behind this bill with some kind of a school book graft. Colonel Chinn said that he thought this bill is loaded at both ends, and he thought it should be amended so as to include cities only of the First and Second class.

Col. Chinn's motion prevailed and the measure was tabled.

House bill 495 (Shanks), to provide $38.09 for Logan Wood, chief of police at Danville, for expenses incurred in capturing a criminal, passed with a dissenting vote.

Intended For Tax Dodgers.

Tax dodgers are in for it if the Gus Brown bill, passed by the senate, becomes a law. The present law fixes a penalty of $500 for any person, who wilfully withholds any property from the assessor, and it is to make this statute more effective that the bill is drawn. Under the Brown bill, the county clerk is required to certify to the sheriff the names of all persons who have omitted to give in any property for assessment, who shall institute an action in conjunction with the county attorney for the collection of the taxes and the enforcement of the penalty. According to the author of the bill, this is the most feasible plan, as the county clerk meets with the board of equalization and has knowledge of all persons suspected of dodging their taxes. He says the present law is a dead letter, because the sheriff in many cases refuses to initiate the proceedings on complaint of the county attorney.

Name Changed to "Lincoln Way."

Governor Wilson having signed the resolution adopted by both houses authorizing the change, the name of the Louisville and Nashville pike leading from Louisville to the Lincoln farm in Larcie county will be officially known hereafter as the "Lincoln Way." Plans are on foot to make this historic thoroughfare one of the most splendid boulevards in America, and the change in name was desired as being more appropriate owing to its connection with the memorial erected at the birthplace of the martyred president.

"My husband was cured of asthma and catarrh and I was cured after my doctor gave me up by using Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as our only medicine."

MR. AND MRS. H. R. SAUNDERS

This is what Mrs. Saunders writes after both her husband and herself had been cured: "My husband has suffered from asthma and catarrh for years, but by the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as his only medicine he has found great relief. As for myself, I was given up by my family doctor 11 years ago, but I heard of your medicine and began taking it. By the time I had taken two bottles, I was able to walk out alone."

"I have recommended Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey to many people since it did so much for my husband and for me. Since I wrote you before I have bought a bottle for my sister-in-law; she is nearly worn out and the doctor told her she has Diabetes, but Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is doing her much good."—Mrs. H. R. Saunders, 959 W. Main Street, Galesburg, Ill.

against him, Mr. Baillinger's statement that Mr. Garfield had made no effort to learn the facts or to understand his position. He also said that Mr. Garfield had highly commended his course while in the government service, and suggested that Garfield's mind had been poisoned against him by misstatements.

"Mr. Baillinger was in error," said Mr. Garfield. "I made every effort to obtain the facts before writing to the president."

In an exchange of letters between Secretary Baillinger and Assistant Secretary Pierce, in August last, it appeared that Senator Guggenheim asked him to have certain lands at La Junta, Col., set apart as a "wild park." The withdrawal to be made under the supervisory power as with the water power sites. Mr. Baillinger directed that the withdrawal be made.

"What is an 'wild park'?" asked Senator Root.

"I don't know."

"Maybe it's the same as a dry town," suggested Representative Olmstead.

The Cunningham Claims.

Examined by Mr. Brandies, Mr. Garfield said he did not recall having a conference with Mr. Baillinger about Glavin's protest against clearing the Cunningham claims.

Mr. Baillinger stated to the president that he had brought this matter to the attention of Mr. Garfield.

Mr. Garfield said that he had nothing to do with the expending of the patents in the Cunningham case, but that if Mr. Baillinger as his subordinate had presented this action to him he would have approved it. He said he did not know the Cunningham claims had been clear listed, and that the clear listing would not have met his approval. Mr. Baillinger had not called these claims to his attention, they were purely land office matter.

At the afternoon session Garfield told of a visit made to him by Mr. Baillinger at Mentor, Ohio, on September 17, 1908, when Mr. Baillinger was in private life. He said: "Mr. Baillinger presented to me an affidavit signed by Clarence Cunningham, saying he was on his way east and had been asked by some friends in Seattle to leave the affidavit.

Did Guggenheim lie?

"Did he tell you he was counsel for Cunningham?"

"No, except as I have indicated, it appeared to be entirely casual. He also took up with me other matters in the Indian bureau."

Attorney Brandies called attention to the fact that the Cunningham affidavit was jacketed in a binding which bore the name of Mr. Baillinger's law firm.

Mr. Garfield testified that Mr. Baillinger had never indicated to him that the Guggenheims were interested in the Cunningham claims, as recently testified before the senate committee on territories.

Mr. Brandies then read from the Cunningham affidavit the statement that the Guggenheims were not in this way interested in the coal lands. This affidavit was dated March 6, 1908.

The testimony before the senate committee shows the Guggenheim option was taken December 7, 1907.

Mr. Verrees began cross-examination of Mr. Garfield late this afternoon.

Recommended Baillinger.

Attorney Brandies introduced in evidence a bundle of letters, which passed between Fred Donnell, commissioner of the land office, and Mr. Baillinger, subsequent to the latter's retirement from the land office in March, 1905. The attorney read an extract from only one which tended to show that the Cunningham claims were a subject of correspondence between the two while Mr. Baillinger was out of office. In less than an hour after the afternoon session began, Mr. Verrees, attorney for Mr. Baillinger, took up the cross-examination of the witness.

Mr. Garfield said he and Mr. Baillinger had been friends ever since they were college mates at Williams in 1882. Mr. Baillinger was in the class ahead of him.

"You recommended Mr. Baillinger for appointment as commissioner of the land office, didn't you?" asked Senator Nelson.

"I did."

"And while he was commissioner, didn't he often go to your office and talk matters over with you, both as secretary of the interior and his friend?" asked Mr. Verrees.

"Yes."

Had Faith Claims.

minutes regarding the coal bills that were pending in 1908, were again gone into, at great length. It appeared that Mr. Baillinger's bill related to claims technically known as "bad faith" claims technical violation of the law which Mr. Garfield said everybody agreed should be changed. The Baillinger bill, it was said, permitted the "bad faith" claimants to transmit their claims and come in under the new law in other words, coming in compliance with the law.

Mr. Garfield said that this bill failed and that the new law of 1908 as finally passed provided only for the consolidation of good faith entries.

Mr. Verrees questioned the witness somewhat fully as to his conception of the laws under which he made the wholesale withdrawals of lands as water power sites. Mr. Garfield said there was no specific law for the withdrawal of power sites as such. He withdrew them, however, to prevent their being acquired as agricultural or timber lands.

"Our society reporter is ill. It is especially hard for a novice to take up this work when it is Lent and every one is keeping it religiously (?). We hear rumors of numerous entertainments but when we make inquiries in regard to them we are told that they prefer to have no mention of them made in the papers as it is Lent. In this connection we would like to ask are they keeping Lent in accordance with the edicts of the church or society?"

A delightful meeting of the Magazine club was held with Miss Kathleen Whitfield, 635 Kentucky avenue, yesterday afternoon. A number of visitors were present. Mrs. W. C. Latimer, of Atlanta, Ga., was an out-of-town guest.

A business meeting was held before the program and the officers for the ensuing year were elected. The following were re-elected: Mrs. Charles K. Wheeler, president; Mrs. Helen Lowry, vice-president; Miss Minnie Ratcliffe, secretary and treasurer.
The magazines were attractively featured. Harper's was represented by Mrs. Vernon Blythe and Mrs. Charles Wheeler. Mrs. Roy McKinley handled the Atlantic Monthly. Miss Minnie Ratcliffe reported from the Cosmopolitan.
A beautifully appointed two-course luncheon was served following the magazine reports. Pink carnations and ferns gave the color-tone, and the pink and green motif was prettily emphasized in the tea and cakes.

CALOMEL IS MERCURY.
No one should ever take Calomel except under a doctor's direction. Calomel contains mercury, and mercury is poison. Physicians for years have been looking for a substitute, for no doctor likes to give dangerous medicine. Dr. Edwards, after fifteen years of study, has solved the problem for all physicians, and compounds Olive Tablets, containing Olive Oil and other vegetable compounds, which act gently and firmly on the liver and bowels. It is not necessary to take Calomel any more since Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are taking its place, so your liver and bowels can be restored to their natural functions without any danger. The Olive Oil in the tablets is healing to the irritated organs. Try a package and see what wonders they do for the Liver and Bowels. At all druggists, in neat 10c and 25c packages. The Olive Tablet Co., Portsmouth, O.

IDEALS

ARE CULTIVATED BY YOUNG PEOPLE IN SCHOOL.

Instructive Address Delivered by Dr. W. A. Fite Before the Teachers.

The Rev. W. A. Fite, pastor of the First Christian church, delivered a splendid address before the teachers of the public schools this afternoon at the regular monthly meeting. His address was along the lines of the benefits to be derived from an education. Dr. Fite said that the value of a man was determined by what he had accomplished, and he thought that the schools are important in the training of a boy or girl. He said the home was where the disposition was formed and in the state the liberties, while the church developed the faith and the schools shaped the ideals of a young person. The address was one of the best that has been delivered before the teachers' meetings.

Following the address the regular reading circle work was taken up.

NO EVIDENCE OF GRAFT.

Illinois Central Chief Denies Story of $5,000,000 Steal.

Chicago, Ill., March 11.—President J. T. Harahan and other officials of the Illinois Central railroad today strenuously denied that any evidence of $5,000,000 graft had been uncovered on that road in connection with the repair of cars and equipment. That there had been an investigation with respect to the business which had been given to the Oostermann Manufacturing company, which is located on the Illinois Central tracks at West Pullman, was freely admitted. "The investigation came about in this manner," explained Mr. Harahan "and did not result in the discovery of anything that was wrong. When we read in the papers that Mr. Oostermann, formerly head of the Oostermann Manufacturing company, was burning up $50 bills and saying something about it being railroad money, we naturally wanted to assure ourselves."

1500 MEN OUT IN PAPER STRIKE

FOUR HUNDRED QUIT AT FORT EDWARD MILLS.

Three Companies on Guard at Corinth, N. Y.—Provisions and Bedding Taken.

TROOPS ARE ORDERED OUT.

Corinth, N. Y., March 11.—The strike of the paper makers and sulphite workers has now spread to five mills of the International Paper company. Four hundred men quit work at Fort Edwards Mills, making 1,500 men out at Glens Falls, Niagara Falls, Port Edward and Corinth.

Three companies of militia were ordered to active duty today. No attempt was made to molest the troops. Provisions and bedding are coming into the mills as for a siege; 300 strikebreakers are massed at Saratoga for convenient distribution, and it is believed that the company will soon try to resume operations with non-union men. Although the presence of the soldiers restored order, there is bitter feeling among the strikers. Nine strikebreakers, charged with carrying concealed weapons, were deported today by the village officers.

The clergymen today told the strikers that they had received letters from the International Paper company authorizing an offer to the men of six working days a week, instead of seven, if the men would return to work. The men took no action on the offer. They ask recognition of the union, a ten per cent advance and no Sunday work.

THE ROAD TO SUCCESS.

has many obstructions, but none so desperate as poor health. Success today demands health, but Electric Bitters is the greatest health builder the world has ever known. It compels perfect action of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, purifies and enriches the blood, and tones and invigorates the whole system. Vigorous body and keen brain follow their use. You can't afford to slight Electric Bitters if weak, run-down or sickly. Only 50c. Guaranteed by all druggists.

THE SCALE COMMITTEE.

Cincinnati, March 11.—The question of a wage scale that has confronted the miners and operators of the central competitive field was placed in the hands of a scale committee. This body consists of four miners and four operators from each state, Ohio, Indiana and western Pennsylvania. The conference adjourned subject to the call of Cincinnati, J. C. Kolson, of Indianapolis. Tomorrow the meetings of the scale committee will begin. The demands that go before the committee are: An increase of 10 cents on a basis rate of 90 cents a ton for pick work, half holidays on Saturday and an eight hour day.

ITCHING OF SCALP INTOLERABLE

Nearly Wild with Painful, Burning Eruption—Half Her Hair Fell Out and Combing It Was Torture—Feared She Would Be Bald.

IN DESPAIR UNTIL CURED BY CUTICURA

"Just about two years ago, some form of humor appeared on my scalp. The beginning was a slight itching but it grew steadily worse until, when I combed my hair, the scalp became raw and the ends of the comb-teeth would be wet with blood. Most of the time there was an intolerable itching in my scalp, burning away, very much as a bad, raw burn, if deep, will itch and smart when first beginning to heal. Combing my hair was positive torture. My hair was long and tangled terribly because of the blood and scales. This continued growing worse and over half my hair fell out. I was in despair, really afraid of becoming totally bald."

"Sometimes the pain was so great that, when partially awake, I would scratch the worst places so that my finger-tips would be bloody. I could not sleep well and, after being asleep a short time, that awful itching pain would come on and then I would wake up nearly wild with the torture. A neighbor said it must be salt rheum. Having used Cuticura Soap merely as a toilet soap before, I now decided to order a set of the Cuticura Remedies—Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills. I used the Cuticura Soap and half a box of Cuticura Ointment in all. The first time I took six or seven bottles of Cuticura Pills and the last time three bottles—neither an expensive or tedious treatment. Since then I have had no scalp trouble of any kind. Standing up, with my hair bound, it comes to my knees and had it not been for Cuticura I should doubtless be wholly bald."

"This is a voluntary, unsolicited testimonial and I take pleasure in writing it, hoping my experience may help someone else. Miss Lillian Brown, R. F. D. 1, Liberty, Mo., Oct. 29, 1909."

Cuticura Remedies are sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston, Mass. Opposing 2700. Cuticura Book up the Back.

THIRD OPERATION PREVENTED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chicago, Ill.—"I want to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I was so sick that two of the best doctors in Chicago said I would die if I did not have an operation. I had already had two operations, and they wanted me to go through a third one. I suffered day and night from inflammation and a small tumor, and never thought of seeing a well day again. A friend told me how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her, and I tried it, and after the third bottle was cured."—Mrs. ALYSSA SPRING, 1408 Clybourne Ave., Chicago, Ill.

If you are ill do not drag along at home or in your place of employment, until an operation is necessary, but build up the feminine system, and remove the cause of those distressing aches and pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down, leukorrhea, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

WILL FIGHT

WOODRUFF UNWILLING TO TAMELY SUBMIT.

Battle For Control Is On In New York.—How the Candidates Stand.

Albany, N. Y., March 11.—Timothy I. Woodruff, chairman of the Republican state committee, arrived here last night and took charge of the fight against the efforts of United States Senator Root to whip the Republican senators into line and the election of Root's candidate for senate majority leader.

The hasty journey of the state chairman to Albany proved that the Republican organization has a real battle on hand, and judging from the defiant attitude of his adherents, those who stand ready to obey the wishes of Root and Gov. Hughes will have difficulty in electing Senator Harvey D. Hinman, of Binghamton, president pro tem, at the Republican caucus scheduled for tonight.

Mr. Woodruff attended Senator Platt's funeral at Oswego today and came from there with William Barnes, Jr., Republican state committeeman from Albany county and one of the governor's most consistent opponents. The situation last night resolved itself into Woodruff and Barnes, with such of the old party leaders as still control their own counties, against Root and Hughes backed by the administration at Washington. Woodruff disappeared, refusing to make a statement, but it is assumed that he will not surrender, at least until after he has canvassed the situation in the senate and found to a man just where he stands.

Senator Cobb, of Watertown, whose selection as majority leader seemed certain until Root publicly advocated Hinman, insisted last night that he was still in the fight. Indications last night were that no candidate would have enough votes in the conference tomorrow night to assure election and that the conference might adjourn again without naming a new leader.

According to the claims of the three camps, the Republican senators now stand as follows: For Cobb, 16 for Hinman, 13; for Davis, 4; doubtful, 1. Necessary to elect 17.

The Republican situation in the last 24 hours has undergone a swift change that the most experienced politicians confess themselves at sea. If a majority of the Republican senators openly defy Root it is evident that the party will face a split of unprecedented dimensions. Cobb's friends last night declare that Root was misled and that he never would have tried to assert his authority so publicly unless he had believed that a word from him would settle the situation. "They gold-bricked him, that's all," said one of the reconcilers.

"If Root's leadership is disowned, some Republicans declared last night that nothing but the return of Theodore Roosevelt could cement the party in time to present an unbroken front to the enemy at next state election. The present disagreement is the first test of Senator Root's power to assume the mantle of leadership."

New Pistol Record.

Spokane, Wash., March 11.—Frank Fromme, national indoor pistol champion, established a new world's record last night when he scored 99 out of a possible 100 at 20 yards. The old record was 98.

CUNNINGHAM ON WITNESS STAND

TELLS HOW HE CAME ACROSS THE COAL LANDS.

Hearing at Cleveland and Cunningham on Stand When Adjournment Was Taken.

STAKED THIRTY-THREE CLAIMS

Cleveland, March 11.—For the first time since the government coal lands investigation began, Clarence Cunningham, who made the original survey on which the Alaskan coal land claims are based, appeared as a witness. Cunningham was called by the attorney for 33 claimants in the inquiry which has been opened here by United States Commissioner McGee.

Cunningham's testimony was not concluded when adjournment was taken. The primary reason, which Cunningham said, attracted him to Alaska, was the report of the finding of oil wells there in the fall of 1902. After weeks of travel with Indians through the mountains and across a desolate, snow bound wilderness, he reached a country where there were virgin coal seams, 15 feet in breadth and apparently inexhaustible in extent. Several poor white squatters agreed to sell their rights for $300 a piece.

Cunningham returned to Spokane and interested nine men in the discovery. Each man paid $500 for the initial expenses of locating claims. He returned to Alaska with an engineer and staked out 22 claims which he filed with the patent office at Kayak. Some of the persons in whose names he entered the claims refused to go further in the matter and others were substituted. Finally 33 entries were made.

The earlier part of the session was taken up with an examination of Henry E. Wick, of Youngstown, O., one of the entrants. He denied that he ever entered into a combination with other entrants or with the Guggenheim interests.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I desire to say that when I took the agency for ZEMO, it was after a thorough investigation as to the merit and curative properties of this remedy for eczema, pimples and dandruff. I frankly admit, ZEMO has far exceeded my expectations as a cure for skin diseases. I am pleased to state that I shall continue the agency as ZEMO gives the best satisfaction of any similar remedy I have ever sold. My customers like ZEMO because it is a clean, vegetable liquid for external use. ZEMO cures by drawing to the surface of the skin and destroying the germ life that causes the disease, leaving the skin clean and healthy. It does not soil the clothing or linens and can be used freely on infants.

We will give a booklet on skin diseases and explain to any person how they can be cured at home of any form of skin or scalp disease by this clean, scientific preparation.

TALK ABOUT FEET.

Troublesome Skin Affections Put to Rest by Poeslam.

A recent exchange of experiences between ten persons developed the fact that nine of them were suffering from foot trouble which caused continual annoyance and serious concern. According to those who know, the best thing to do when the feet are tired, inflamed, itching, chafed or broken out is to apply a little Poeslam and note how quickly the difficulty will vanish.

It makes quick work of acne, herpes, tetter, scaly scalp, barber's and every other form of itch. Occasional applications in small quantities will quickly banish pimples, hives, blackheads, blotches, etc. A special 50c package of Poeslam is prepared for those who use Poeslam for minor skin troubles, and this, as well as the regular two dollar jar, is on sale at Gilbert's and R. W. Walker Co.'s, as well as all drug stores.

But no one is even asked to purchase Poeslam without first obtaining a sample package, which will be sent by mail, free of charge, upon request, by the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City.

FOUR WITNESSES

AGAINST MABRAY

HOW VICTIMS WERE FLEEDED ON FAKE EVENTS.

"Millionaires' Club Swindled out of Sum Ranging From $2,000 to $37,000.

ONE TURNS STATE'S EVIDENCE.

Council Bluffs, Ia., March 11.—

Testimony was given today by four government witnesses in the case of John C. Mabray and others, charged with conspiracy to defraud by the unlawful use of the United States mails in promoting fake sporting events.

The alleged operations of Mabray and his associates, known as the "Millionaires' Club," in New Orleans, Deaver and Council Bluffs, were told in detail. The sporting events carried through by these men, according to the witnesses were so well planned that there was not a chance for the victim to escape and the losses ran from $2,000 to $37,000, according to the ability and willingness of the victim to contribute.

Thomas Gay, one of the indicted men who turned state's evidence, was the first witness called. He testified that he first met Mabray in New Orleans. Mabray was then associated with R. B. Harriman and Frank W. Brown, who are now fighting extradition in Los Angeles. Gay lived at Streator, Ill., where he was a professional wrestler. He lured James Tierney, of Streator, to go to New Orleans and bet on a wrestling match in January, 1908. Tierney lost $10,000, of which Gay received $2,000. He told in detail of the system employed to get victims and of how they were handled from the time they were first "interviewed" until sent home penniless. He was also one of the wrestlers in a match at Council Bluffs where a lumberman of St. Paul, Mr. Shull, lost $2,500.

Ernest Fenby, of Shepherd, Mich., another professional wrestler, who was defeated at Detroit a few nights ago by Zhyzsko, testified that he received letters from Council Bluffs, written by Mabray, giving instructions for fixing wrestling matches and horse races. He, with James Coon, a neighbor, induced three friends to bet, and they lost $14,000 on wrestling matches.

Fenby explained how a bladder filled with blood was caused to burst in his opponent's mouth at the critical moment when the latter would

My hair was falling quite gray and falling out rapidly, and I was troubled with a terrible itching of the scalp. My head was full of dandruff. I heard of your Sage and Sulphur for the hair. roll over and assume a dying condition. This was a ruse to break up the match. Then everybody would scatter to prevent arrest. He worked this trick three times.

James Coon, of Owosso, Mich., husked corn for a living until he learned the "system" and then made plenty of money for a while. He identified Mabray as the leader of the Millionaires' club. Coon confirmed Fenby's testimony. Coon is now employed by the ellet Sugar company at Owosso.

California Shocked.

San Francisco, March 11.—Sharp earthquake felt. Motion was long and slow. Telegraph companies report it was felt in other parts of the state. The shock lasted one and a half seconds and the vibration was north to south. In two San Francisco theaters, where the last act was closing, scores of people jumped to their feet when the earthquake was felt. In one there was a decided movement from the galleries toward the exits, which was promptly stopped by policemen.

In an Oakland theater a number of timid persons started for the doors but cries of "sit down" promptly stopped them. A panic was narrowly averted in a theater at San Jose. Although the shock was the severest since that of April 16, 1906, no damage was done. The shock was felt as far south as San Luis Obispo.

DEMURRAGE RULES

SEEM TO BE MORE IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION.

Free Days Given in Which to Unload Cars—How it Will Effect Shippers.

The car service rules the railroad commission of the state of Kentucky has ordered to be put into force gives to the consignee 48 hours free time. If a car is placed after 7 a. m. on any day free time will begin to run until 7 a. m. on the following day. If unloaded within 24 hours from the time the free time begins the consignee is allowed credit for one day to be applied against the demurrage against any car or cars of the consignee. The rules provide however, that not more than seven days' credit shall be allowed on any one car; that is, if a shipper should have seven days' time to his credit and should hold a car ten days or any number of days beyond seven days over the free time, he can only receive credit on that car that is held beyond seven days over the free time of seven days, so that if any one car is held a greater number of days than seven days beyond the free time, additional days must be paid for by the shipper, no matter how many days he may have to his credit on unloading other cars sent to the same shipper.

The demurrage rules also provide that each month is closed at the end thereof. Any number of free days to the credit of any shipper is cancelled at the end of the month, each month thus closing itself.

Three times as such a great improvement over the rules that have been in force heretofore, that the adoption of the present car service rules is a great advantage to the shippers. Under the former condition, if a shipper should have seven days' time to his credit and should hold a car ten days or any number of days beyond seven days over the free time, he can only receive credit on that car that is held beyond seven days over the free time of seven days, so that if any one car is held a greater number of days than seven days beyond the free time, additional days must be paid for by the shipper, no matter how many days he may have to his credit on unloading other cars sent to the same shipper.

Although the shock was the severest since that of April 16, 1906, no damage was done. The shock was felt as far south as San Luis Obispo.

LIVELY RACE

SHANTYBOATER RUNS FROM MISSION OF THE LAW.

Constable Serves Warrant on Him, Charging False Swearing.

After a chase of 250 yards on Meyers street, Mechanicsburg, about 7 o'clock this morning W. M. Hicks, 35 years old, a shantyboater, was captured by Constable A. C. Shelton, who had a warrant against him for false swearing. Hicks was standing at Farley's grocery just across the Island Creek bridge, when Constable Shelton approached. Hicks saw the officer when he was several feet away and dashed out Meyers street as fast as his legs could carry him. Constable Shelton stopped his horse and jumping from his rig gave pursuit. Being more active than Hicks the constable overtook him. Hicks was taken before Magistrate C. W. Emery and his trial set for next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

J. P. Miller swore out a warrant a few days ago against Hicks, charging him with telling a false story upon the witness stand in Magistrate Emery's court some time ago in a case, involving some houseboats in the Tennessee river.

BASKETBALL GAMES FOR TONIGHT ARE FAST ONES.

Two of the best games of the basketball season are promised tonight when the Elks will try honors with the High school team, and the D. A. B.'s will go against the Light and Power squad. The Elks and the school lads are matched equally, and the game will be played for all it is worth. Both teams are speedy, and have developed team work to a degree of perfection. The fraternity lads have a quintet hard to surpass, but the Light and Power team, with several old college men in the lineup, will give them a creditable battle.

NEW BOOKS

WILL BE PURCHASED FOR THE HIGH SCHOOL SOON.

Reference Books Will Take Up Most of Fund—The Debating Society.

Lists of books needed in the High school library are being made out by the members of the faculty and will be submitted and the order made up. The High school needs several new dictionaries, sets of revised reference books and encyclopedias. These are expensive and after the purchase little will be left of the money for other books. It is proposed to subscribe for several of the scientific journals for the science journals and other magazines appropriate for the different departments. The school cleared $138 on the oratorical contest and the school board gave a similar amount, making a fund of about $276 for the purpose of replenishing the library.

Debating Society.

Officers of the debating society of the High school were elected yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the students, who announced their intention of taking the work of the society. The name has not been selected. The officers are: Miss Ruth McChesney, president; Miss Stella Anderson, vice-president, and Miss Pauline Hank, secretary-treasurer.

The basketball teams of the High school will leave tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock on the steamer Dick Fowler for Cairo, where they will play the Cairo High school teams. The girls will play tomorrow afternoon, while the boys will battle with the Cairo students tomorrow night. The first team of the boys will not be in the best shape, as tonight in the city basketball league the boys will have a hard game with the Elks.

In Bankruptcy.

A sale of the stock of groceries of J. M. Rickman, a grocer who entered bankruptcy, will be held March 25. The real estate will be included in the sale.

Electra for Evansville, Kentucky for Metropolis, City of Sallito for St. Louis.

River and Weather.
Gauge at 7 a. m. read 36.2 feet, a rise of three-tenths of a foot since yesterday morning. The crest of the rise is believed to have reached here. Weather clear and warmer and business good.

Driftwood.
The Kentucky arrived at 6 a. m. today from Riverton and went immediately below to unload lumber at Metropolis. She is due back here tonight and leaves tomorrow evening for a return trip to the Tennessee.

The Mary N. went to Cairo yesterday with a raft of logs.

The Russell Lord and Margaret are due here Saturday from the Mississippi.

Capt. George Phillips received a telegram at 5:30 o'clock yesterday evening from the Ryman line at Nashville stating that the Electra left there for Evansville yesterday. She is due to reach Paducah at 10 o'clock tonight on her way to Evansville.

The Nashville is due back here from Nashville Saturday.

The Richardson is due Sunday night from Nashville and leaves at noon Monday for Clarksville.

Capt. James Koger and wife have gone to Florida and the Bahamas Islands for a three weeks' visit.

It is estimated that 15,000,000 bushels of coal are waiting in the Pittsburgh harbor to be taken south by towboats.

The giant towboat Sprague has reached Louisville from New Orleans, where she took a tow of coal to reboiling the coal famine. She is now busy making up another big tow and leaves again for New Orleans soon.

The City of Sallito will on April 2 carry at least 125 Civil war veterans to the Shiloh battleground to attend the National Association of the Battle-ground of Shiloh survivors April 6 and 7.

The towboat John A. Woods, of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke company, will begin towing coal between Cairo and St. Louis next week.

The Dick Fowler left on time for Cairo this morning with a good trip. Good business is also being enjoyed by the Cowling and Ohio.

The river here is within four feet of the flood stage, which is 40 feet. Rivermen are of the opinion that there will be little more water.

Al Rittenhouse, a clerk on the Kentucky, is suffering with a bad cold and threatened with pneumonia.

Capt. James Howard, Jr., for years commander on the steamers John S. Hopkins and the Joe Fowler, running between Paducah and Evansville, arrived in Paducah last night for a two days' visit. Captain Howard will no doubt be retained as commander on the Joe Fowler by the new packet company that is now being organized in Evansville, although nothing definite has been announced. Captain Howard said Mr. Ragon, the new owner of the boat, has spoken of this encouragingly, however.

Mr. R. G. Morrow, of Memphis, was in the city yesterday visiting relatives while en route to Chicago on business.

Cairo people, Messrs. Ben Wolfe, H. H. Sewall, Robert Vint will attend the meeting.

Another town that will be counted on is Marion, Ill. Last season the town supported a fast amateur team, and there is no doubt but that the town will be included in the league. Around Marion are several interurbans, and it is proposed to build the park between Marion, Herrin and Carbondale. These three towns would support a strong team, and would make one of the best drawing towns as the interurbans give good service and the people are wild about the prospect of league ball. Harry Kelley was in Marion yesterday in the interest of the league.
